X3MAZero is a special version of X3MA, designed to give its best on circuit racing but also suitable for historic cars of all kinds.

Reduced weight and improved design make the X3MAZero outperform the best magnesium wheels on the market. In addition, control and acceleration capabilities have been increased while maintaining product stiffness and strength.

Moreover, the flexible design of the hub allows to have multiple applications on the same wheel making it easily customizable and adaptable to many car models, including mono-nut.
